NUMB. 62.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, MARCH 29. to Saturday, APRIL 5. 1735.

LONDON, Dec. 19.

THey write from Rome, that the Spaniards have again ſeiz'd another Courier, who was carrying Letters from Fraſſinona to Sora; the Letters were immediately ſent to Naples, and the poor Courier ſent to Jail,

All the News from Parma, Ferrara, Mantua and the reſt of the Places there abouts, are but ſo many Accounts of Marches and Endeavours to ſurprize on the one ſide, and vigilance to prevent it on the other: Count Koningſegg is indefatigable, and if he does not meet with Succeſs, all the world muſt allow that he deſerves it: He has obliged the Allies to keep 12000 Men in Parma, and put the Marſhal de Broglio upon the march with 20,000 more: The Allies have numerous Garriſons beſides in Cremona, Pidgitona, Milan, Guaſtalla and ſeveral other Places; and yet the Germain General, even by the largeſt Accounts, has not above 40,000 Men in the whole. But the French like dancing in Winter better than fighting.

'Tis written from Paris, that the Queen is with Child again.

They add, that the Earl of Waldegrave has lately had a long Conference with the Cardinal de Fleury about the Negociations of Peace; and that the King of Great Britain ſpares no Pains to bring about a Suſpenſion of Arms before next Campaign.

Tueſdays Mail brings the Confirmation of the Confiſcation of the Effects lately taken from the Hamburghers by the King of Denmark, and a Copy of the King's Declaration thereupon, wherein his Majeſty complains, 'That he has great reaſon to be diſſatisfied with the Behaviour of the Magiſtrates of Hamburg for ſome Years paſt, but that he has received no Satisfaction with relation to the ſeveral Complaints he has made, particularly concerning the Regulation, relating to the Value of the Coin, made at Hamburg, which is ſo prejudicial to his Subjects; and that at laſt, tho' with great Reluctance, he had been obliged to take this Method to do himſelf juſtice; but without any Intention however of prejudicing the Rights of Foreigners, who may reclaim, within the Space of three Months, whatever they can make appear belong'd to them.

Hague, January 11. The States of this Province are to aſſemble To-morrow, the 12th; and without doubt, the chief Subject of their Deliberations, will be the Meſſations which they are to enter upon, in concert with his Britannick Majeſty, for reconciling the Pretenſions of the Parties at War. Mr. Walpole explain'd himſelf at a Conference which he had with the Deputies of the States the Day before yeſterday, juſt after he had receiv'd an Expreſs from his Court, concerning the Means, which are the moſt likely to conduce to a general Pacification; and at the ſame time communicated the Steps which have been taken by the Britiſh Court, for the attaining that deſirable end. Accounts from London ſay, the Britiſh Court take inceſſant Pains, chiefly with the Allies, to prevail on them to relax in the Deſign they ſeem to have in view, of driving the Emperor quite out of Italy.

Deal, Jan. 9. Several Ships are loſt and drove away: The George & Mary, Keller, and Falmouth, cut away her Maſts, and drove on board the Naſſau and ſunk, the Capt. and Men are all ſav'd; the Wiltſhire, Naylor, for Lizbon, drove on the Quarns and is loſt the Chief Mate was waſh'd over-board and drowned, the Second Mate died on the Deck, and the Carpenter and three Seamen drowned: This Account we have from Ramſgate: A large Ship was laſt Night on the ſame Place, and no Boat could go to them, but this Morning ſhe is gone ſuppoſed to be drove of: The St. Laurence of Ramſgate drove on ſhore near that Place, and all the People ſav'd but the Ship ſunk and drove away; a ſmall Snow was ſunk, but all the People were ſav'd; the Richard & Mary, Chambers, drove away and has not ſince been heard of; the Mary, Ellis, from Virginia, cut away all her Maſts and rides ſafe; the Hungerford, Sutton, ſunk under Capt Towers's Bow, eleven of her Crew ſaved the reſt are drowned.

London, Jan. 16. The Maſter of a Ship from Oſtende who came away ſince the Storm of the 8th inſt. reports, that for 4 miles Space, on the Coaſt of Flanders, nothing but Wrecks and dead Bodies were to be ſeen; and that it was believed there were not leſs than 400 and of the latter.

It's written from Dover the 13th inſt. that the Day before two pretty large Wrecks were ſeen with their bottoms upward: one near Falkſtone, and the other 6 or 7 Miles from Dover: That Boats had got hold of them, in order to tow them on ſhore. The Succeſs, Capt. Atkinſon, bound from London to Oporto was loſt near Brighthelmſtone.

We had yeſterday a further Account of the Loſſes in that Storm, viz on the Coaſt of Suſſex, a large Ship loaded with Coals, ſuppoſed to be bound to Lizbon, all the Men drowned; and in Margate Road, the Iſabella, Capt. Poye, bound to Guiney.

His Excellency the Chevalier d'Oſſorio, Envoy extraordinary from the King of Sardinia received laſt Monday an Expreſs from Turin, with the News that the Queen, who had labour'd ſeveral Months under a lingring Illneſs, died there a few Days after his Majeſty's Arrival from the Camp at Cremona. She was Daughter of the Prince of Heſſe-Rhinfels, was born the 21ſt of September 1700, and has left 3 Princes and the like Number of Princeſſes. We hear that the Court will go into Mourning on this occaſion ſoon after his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales's Birth Day, for ſix Weeks.

Gloceſter, Jan. 11. To the ſurpriſing Accounts of Damages done by the dreadful Storm that happen'd on Wedneſday laſt, we have to add the three following, viz. That at Salisbury a new-built Malt-Houſe, and ſome other Buildings adjoining, which coſt 700 l. where blown down. —That 90 large Elm-Trees were blown down in St. Pier's-Walk near Newport in Monmouthſhire. —— That a Boat was overſet near Caerleon in the ſame County, and four Perſons drowned. — And from Burfort in Oxfordſhire, that a Man and Horſe were drowned between that Place and Brampton: The Man had 13 Guineas in his Pocket, and his Horſe was valued at 20 l. — In ſhort, we have not Room mention what diſmal Intelligence we have receiv'd on this Head.

Vienna,

Vienna, Dec. 11. We are assur'd, since the Arrival of a Courier from London, that the mediating Powers have given the Allies but six Weeks to declare their Sentiments, either for Peace or War; and we have a Report here, that if there happens to be no Accomodation, Count Daun, formerly Governor of the Milaneze, who had the Government of the Austrian Netherlands in the Year 1725, will return there again in the same Quality: And that the Archdutchess, who is at present at Brussels, will be made Governess of the Tyroleze. It is also publickly asserted here, that his Portugueze Majesty has promis'd to lend the Emperor 12 millions of Florins, and that his Imperial Majesty designs to form a Camp of 22,000 Men on the borders of Bohemia. The 2d of this month the States of Silesia open'd their annual Assembly at Breslau, where the Emperor demanded an ordinary Subsidy of 1,333,300 Florins, and an extraordinary one of 866,600 Florins, for the Service of the ensuing Year. 300,000 Florins are sent to the Army in Lombardy under a sufficient Escorte, and a much more considerable Sum is to follow very soon. Count Nesselthorp, Commissary General of the War, has sent an Estimate to Court of the necessary Expences for the next Campaign, which, 'tis said amounts to above 40 millions of Florins.

CHARLESTOWN, April 5.

The following is an Extract of a Letter from an Indian Trader among the Cherokees, giving an Account of the Murder of Mr George Stevens, to the Wife of the deceased.

Mr. George Stevens had been at great Telliqua trading, and as he was returning, his Horses threw their Packs at a Place called Chistanee and lost about 10 pound of Bullets, he sent back one of his People to look for them, but not finding them he would go himself, and accordingly he went. The people stay'd some time for him, and finding he did not come, went on, expecting him to follow. I sett out the 6th of February in order to go to Great Tellico. —The next Day I came to Connosty, where I was informed Mr. George Stevens had been missing 8 days, next night I lay in the Woods between Connosty and Tellico, where the news of his being missing was confirm'd. I went directly to the Town-house to gett some People to go out & look for him.—On the 11th the Indians went out and found him and told me where the Body lay. The next Day I could not go out being rainy: The 13th I went & carried with me James MCnally & Anthony Gallober & Cæsar an Indian of Tellico & burried his Body in a Blankett.

He was wounded as follows: Three Cuts on the Head, one on the back & sculp'd, his left hand was split to the wrist, his left shoulder jointed, his Stomach cut open to his Belly, and prick'd all over the Body. They took nothing from him as I know, but his Hat, his Rings, buttons, one Shoe & one Knee-buckle I have got, which I shall keep till I see you, the other shoe & Knee-buckle were lost, I suppose in strugling with the Enemy.—The Indians believe the Enemy were Southward People called Allahamers.

On Saturday last the 29th of March, GABRIEL MANIGAULT Esq; was sworn in as Publick Treasurer for this Province in the room of Alexander Parris Esq; who had served in several Publick Stations for the space of 42 Years, and in the Quality of publick Treasurer near 23 Years. Tuesday next is appointed for the election of another Person to succeed the said Gabriel Manigault Esq; as Member of the Hon. the House of Commons.

On the same Day PETER TAYLOR Esq; was sworn in Commissary for this Province.

By the Printer hereof will soon be published, an Act for the better ordering & governing of Negroes & other Slaves, ratified March 29 1735.

On a ticking Toad, stolen or stray'd from London.

Mechanick work, compact for motion,
When I arriv'd gave me promotion:
It's true, I pawn'd thee, but not for lose,
Better by far I'd have pawn'd my Wife.
Gott o'er D—l's back, lost under's belly.
Where art thou gone? oh! who can tell me?
When I had thee I had good mettal,
The loss of thee makes me to nettle.
Since thou hast took thy fatal frolick
My Wife is taken with a cholick,
Her clapper of late met with disaster,
Or else my head had had a plaster.
Poor creature! were I now but with thee,
I would not care were't in a privy,
Thy number I would soon discover,
But then I fear they'll thee recover.
To London City don't take thy ramble,
To Cape Fear thou'l hang my amble,
Thou'rt too good mettal with me to tarry,
For want of thee I may miscarry.
But as thou cam'st to me but lightly,
Submissively I bid good by t'ye.
